FOREWORD—Indiana is one of the greatest Shorthorn cattle states in the Union. In all parts of the state are to be found strong herds that annually produce cattle of top quality that are backed by famous Scotch ancestry. Each year for a quarter of a century one annual sale has been held in the Spring at Indianapolis. In order to extend the scope of the work carried on by the Indiana Shorthorn Breeders' Association, the members of this strong association have decided to establish a Fall Show and Sale and the first annual event will be held at Purdue University on November 17th. A beautiful lot of cattle have been consigned from the leading herds in the state and the offering represents a source of supply of herd heading bulls and herd building females that will please the most critical buyers. Every animal has been inspected by Clinton K. Tomson, Field Representative of the American Shorthorn Breeders' Association. With feed plentiful and breeding cattle selling at very moderate levels, it is an ideal time to buy and this carefully selected sale offering presents a rare opportunity.

Hal Longley of The Shorthorn World.

An International First Prize "Get" sired by Browndale Pilot. Bred and exhibited by T. Dorsey Jones, one of the consignors in this sale.
